

"Pacekids' 25th year of changing lives in this city, among many things, has made us all a bit more familiar with the trials, the elated moments, and the devotion the children and families we serve experience each day."

Revenue

Expenses

232

home learning packages distributed to homes to support program continuity

728

circle times to support language development and encourage first words

1,049

YouTube videos created to enhance virtual learning and provide critical resources for parents

9

Triple P seminars which had 255 participants discovering strategies for parenting children with special needs

17,555

stakeholders embraced 718,581 minutes of Zoom to deliver on Pacekids' mission

260K+

users reached across all social media platforms connecting them to the impact of Pacekids

5,144

professional development hours to honour an organizational commitment to learning and growth

351,721

dollars contributed by 319 donors playing an essential role in program efficacy

16k+

masks distributed to support the health and safety of our staff and families

